

LG&E CO CREDIT UNION COLLEGE SCHOLARSHIPS GIVEAWAY

LG&E Co. Credit Union is giving away two $1,000 scholarships to graduating seniors or current college students. The interested students must complete an application and present an essay of 300 words or less on “The current economic climate has raised the debate of banks vs. credit unions. The media and community leaders have brought credit unions into the forefront as a viable financial option for people. If you had the opportunity to talk to your peers what would you tell them about credit unions and how could you convince them a credit union has all that they need for their financial life?” A committee will review the applications and essays to determine the recipients. The applicants must meet the following qualifications:

- Be the primary member on an account at LG&E Co. Credit Union.
- Be a graduating senior or a current college student with a GPA of 3.0 or higher.
- Submit application and essay electronically by April 21, 2011. Essay must be in a Word document.

Both the application and essay must be received by April 21, 2011. Applicants will be disqualified if both the application and essay are not received by the deadline. Essays will be graded on creativity, research, grammar and spelling. Recipients will be announced prior to the 78th Annual Meeting on May 26, 2011. The check will be presented to the recipients and made payable to the recipient and the institution that he or she is attending.

Please call (502) 627-3140 for questions on the requirements.

The applications can be submitted online at www.lgecu.org. Essays should be emailed to lgecu@bellsouth.net.
